Hi there!

This is the story of a language enthusiast who founded her own company.

After I had graduated the Master's of Literature and Linguistics with the highest honours and top of the class, I became a teacher at Ghent University. In 2016, I founded my own company Talkative, in which I dedicate all my creativity and passion for language to developing the perfect language course for every client.

Today, you can contact me and my team of language trainers for many different language matters, in which we do not focus on scripted materials that have been used time and again, but on your needs and wishes.

Hope to see you soon!
Jorien
